

East Hertfordshire District CouncilPersonal Details:*Organisation Name:*Comment text:

Proposals dilute excessively representation levels. The elected representatives will be stretched too far. In situations where access to elected members can be crucial, the workload and demands upon elected members will be unduly increased and access made more difficult. Resolution of problems will become more problematic.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded