

East Hertfordshire District CouncilPersonal Details:*Organisation Name:*Comment text:

I strongly object to the name of Aston being airbrushed out. This is a distinct village with a vibrant community and strong identity but under constant threat of being absorbed into Stevenage. Around 80 residents attended the last parish council AGM. Surely that demonstrates our need to retain our name in this new arrangement

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded