This is nonsense. We were consulted by TWBC on whether we wanted fewer councillors and also switch frequency from 'by thirds' voting. The majority wanted no change and a submission made. Now LGBC is "minded" to do it anyway, whatever that word means and with no reference to the opinions already expressed or reasons why this is pressing ahead regardless. We are offered this page: an open-ended question on how new boundaries should be drawn with no criteria, guidance or clue on what you're looking for. It's an open invitation to gerrymander, for those "minded" to do so, while the rest of us will shrug and ignore, or say WTF and ignore. I've waded through the related links because I'm a masochist, without being able to understand the big picture on why this is happening. The vast majority of people, if they look at all, will be linked directly to this baffling webpage (and then leave). But yes, "we have been consulted", so big tick in that box!
