This does not make any sense at all. How can Alleyns Road (which has been there since the late 1800's) and the adjoining streets not be part of the Old town however the new town which has only been there since the early 70's is? All of these historical old streets within the current Old Town should remain as part of the Old Town as documented in many historical books eg Stevenage past by Margeret Ashby Stevenage by Maggie Appleton. The Old Town boundary should remain as Grace Way.
