I see no reason to change the boundaries. The boundaries as set work fine. When this was first posted i asked questions which weren't answered. Maybe you and get the boundary commission who posted on FB to actually respond to the questions below. I feel the closing date should be extended due to the tardy and zero response earlier in the year. Local Government Boundary Commission for England 1. how many Councillor's are there at present? 2. Will this consultation only be available online? There are people who don't do online or Facebook. 3. What are the proposed 40 wards 4. Why do we need them? 5. Will this put unnecessary cost on our council tax or stretched government budget? 6. I couldn't get the website to work. > Select boundaries it just says undefined. > says 'There is plenty of information to help you make a submission in the 'Related links' section at the top right of the page'. There is no such link in top right,
