Comment text:

Wokingham expansions over many years have been well planned with Wards reflecting the different identities of each locality/community giving residents a sense of place and belonging. We live in Norreys Ward which has a distinctive character different to adjoining Wards Embrook, Westcott, and Hurst. If the Ward boundaries are redrawn here and in other areas of the town there is a strong possibility of becoming a sprawling metropolis and residents are potentially likely to lose their choice of belonging to a local community and their place within Wokingham as a whole.
