Comment text:

We live in Lower Earley, our shops, schools, surgeries, library etc are in Lower Earley, Hillside ward, yet we are placed in a Shinfield ward. Shinfield is not our hinterland. To place half of Ryhill Way and associated side roads in Hillside ward and the rest in Shinfield North is stupid. In fact as you go round Ryhill Way, you travel through Hillside, then Shinfield North, and then back to Hillside. It is significant at election times, we get literature and canvassing as though we were Hillside and nothing for Shinfield North. Ward boundaries should follow the natural community boundaries. We could also mention that in the same way we identify with Lower Earley not Shinfield, we really belong to Reading not Wokingham, but that is another issue. Please let's have one thing democratic.
