Why not put Twyford and Ruscombe together rather than putting Ruscombe with Remenham and Wargrave? Surely that would make more sense ? I really don't understand why some of Broad Hinton and Hurst Park Rd is split away from Twyford and being put in Hurst. However my biggest concern is do the proposed new boundaries take into account the impact of any future residential building projects planned for Wokingham? Has the Borough actually have an agreed development plan in place or is it still in the planning stage? Has this been taken into account when drawing up these wards to accommodate 54 Councillors? Another problem which would have an impact on the even distribution of councillors across the Borough would be if there is a large development south of M4 between junctions 10-11. Has this been thought about?
