I am a resident in Pattingham, and whilst not wishing to lose our local councillor understand that the number of people living in Pattingham with Patshull does no longer warrant our own councillor, however I do ask you to consider that we are a predominantly rural Parish (not an extension of semi-urban Perton) and we would be better matched with similar like-mined people - for example our neighbours in Trescott and over towards Seisdon & Trysull. We may sometimes shop in Perton or send our children to school in Codsall but that is only because there is little alternative - we are surrounded by farmland and a rural way of life has been the backbone and formation of our villages, Pattingham & Patshull, over the years and into the 21st century.
