Park, Marton, , Stanley - disproportionately larger wards, but also more affluent, so arguably not as much member focus needed. Clifton and Highfield slighter smaller so boundaries could be extended slightly to take some pressure off Stanley Inner wards (Brunsiwck, Tyldsley, Victoria, Waterloo) disproportionally smaller in geography and numbers which would suggest that this is the area to look at rationalizing (spreading out over fewer larger wards). However these are deprived areas and so arguably need more member focus?
