Thank you for letting me know about the proposed boundary changes for our local council wards. I was pleased to read that you aim to have broadly the same number of people in each of the new wards. I understand why you are aiming to do that and it sounds like a good idea. However I don't understand why interests and identities are being taken into account. I should be interested to know what you're trying to achieve and by what criteria you'll be defining interests and identities of communities for the purposes of this exercise. I look forwards to your reply. Yours sincerely, [REDACTED]
