LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOUNDARY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND

Introductory text

Supply Estimates are the means by which the Commission makes provision for its spending each year. The Main Estimates start this process and are presented to Parliament around the start of the financial year to which they relate. In addition, there is an opportunity to present Supplementary Estimates in February. Further information on the resource-based supply arrangements is provided in the Main Estimate booklet (HC 1360).

Part III: Note D - Explanation of Accounting Officer responsibilities

The Accounting Officer and Chief Executive prepares resource accounts for each financial year.

The Speakers' Committee has appointed Jolyon Jackson, the Chief Executive, as Accounting Officer of the Local Government Boundary Commission for England

Jolyon Jackson has personal responsibility for the proper presentation of the Local Government Boundary Commission for England's resource accounts and their transmission to the Comptroller & Auditor General, and is also responsible for the use of public money and stewardship of assets.

In discharging these responsibilities, particular regard is given to:

- observing any accounting and disclosure requirements (including any Accounts Direction) and applying suitable accounting policies on a consistent basis;
- making judgements and estimates on a reasonable basis;
- stating whether applicable accounting standards, as set out in the Financial Reporting Manual (FRM), or an organisation's version of it, have been followed, and explain any material departures in the accounts; and
- preparing the accounts on a going concern basis.

The responsibilities of an Accounting Officer, including responsibility for regularity and propriety of the public finances for which an Accounting Officer is answerable, for keeping proper records and safeguarding assets, are also set out in Chapter 3 of Managing Public Money.
