

Buckinghamshire Council

Personal Details:

[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Comment text:

Rural Wards should be reduced in size and each should be single member wards. Each such single member ward should be centred on the community in that ward and appropriately named which would normally mean naming it after the largest community on which it is centred. For example the current Great Brickhill Ward takes its name from a modest sized village on the extreme edge of the Geographically large Ward, this makes no sense at all.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded