Comment text:

I live in Astwood Bank on Astwood lane, however I have to pay an additional levy in my council tax for living in Feckenham. My house is one mile from the traffic lights at Astwood Bank. My official address is Astwood Bank it doesn't make sense and I object to paying extra for Feckenham when I don't live there. There must be others in the same situation. What can be done about this please?
