Comment text:

First, the map is very difficult to read. Roads names etc are pale grey and underneath the darker highlighting are almost impossible to see. Secondly, the proposed Whittlesey East and Villages ward makes little sense. Why put Teal Road/Drybread Road/Coronation Road etc with Eastry and Coates when they are directly connected to Whittlesey itself? Third, why have a tiny ward - Lattersly - which is also part of Whittlesey? The philosophy of this is directly counter to that of the proposed Whittlesey East and Villages ward. These proposals smack of political expediency and little commonsense.
