Comment text:

I believe that to join the ApleyCastle and Leegomery Wards to be a huge retrograde step. Apley Castle has developed its own unique identity since becoming an independent ward in 2003. Local members and residents have worked very hard to develop its identity focused around Apley woods including securing Local Nature Reserve status. Each ward has clearly defined boundaries and community identities. In addition in 2009 Royal Mail conducted a survey of residents and over 96% supported a name change, Regards [REDACTED], Apley
