

I have lived on [REDACTED] in Hove for the past eighteen years during which time the pavement passing Grove Court, Bowen Court and the Courtlands Hotel has not once been resurfaced. The pavements are uneven and a danger to older pedestrians. Besides this, [REDACTED] has been an eyesore for the past twenty years with homes along the East side below the Courtlands Hotel boarded up and derelict. Is there no pride left in this town?

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded