

What a waste of money. Will changing the boundaries of wards make any difference to how the council operates? We want an effective and efficient council to tackle important local issues such as housing, homelessness, rubbish collection, street cleaning. Don't waste your money on consultations about wards. Just get on with the job of representing the wishes of residents and spending their money wisely.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded