Bargate should be split in two. With the large increase in residential property in Ocean Village and Bow Square etc. and the major constructions/refurbishments in the city centre the councillors in this ward have a disproportionate amount of responsibility and say over matters affecting the city as a whole I so far as commercial, retail, restaurants and attractions are concerned (for residents, businesses and visitors alike). Perhaps divide it at East Street? North of there could remain Bargate ward and south could be named something suitable relating to that area - Quay Ward, Ocean Ward, Tower Ward (Gods House Tower), Waterfront Ward.....and so on and so on!
