Dear Sir,

Buckinghamshire Electoral Review - Size of Buckinghamshire Council

In 2018 the Town Council wrote to the Secretary of State to express its view that a unitary authority comprising 147 members would be unnecessarily expensive and burdensome. We remain of that opinion.

While we can offer no view of the number of members that the Buckinghamshire Council requires to carry out its internal business, we believe that two members per electoral division is sufficient to provide satisfactory representation for the community. Accordingly, if number of electoral divisions remains unchanged, it is the Town Council's opinion that 98 members would be more than sufficient to meet the needs of the authority.

Yours faithfully

Winslow Town Council
