Review of wards in Guildford borough

I am responding on behalf of East Horsley Parish Council in Surrey to the LGBCE consultation in respect of the ward boundary review presently in process for Guildford Borough.

The parish of East Horsley is part of the Horsley & Clandon ward within Guildford borough and we are satisfied with the present ward boundary arrangements, as well as with our representation by three borough councillors.

Please note that a parish boundary revision was approved by GBC in 2020 involving the adjustment of an anomalous boundary between the Effingham and East Horsley parish boundaries. This revision was supported by both the affected parish councils and will take effect in 2023.

Yours faithfully,
N S Clemens
