I do not agree with moving Coalway Road as it is a major hub of the Penn Community. In fact there is a war memorial close by that pays tribute to the soldiers of Penn who fought in the World war. Would we change that to Soldiers of Graiseley. Penn has it's own unique community and should not be messed about, with the Catholic church, the local shops. I understand other similar wards like Merry Hill, Tettenhall are not affected although the electoral numbers are similar. This is just tampering with something for no good reason. If it's not broke dont fix it. Also, I don't buy a property for it to be moved to Graiseley. Will my Council tax come down?
