I do not agree with the proposed boundary changes in Penn as 3 other wards are staying the same and are no different in size and population. We will lose our well populated and loved local catholic church. Penn has it's own shops and character and we do not want it to be changed to Graiseley, as they have their own. Finally changing a Property from Penn to Graiseley or Blakenhall would significantly depreciate the market value of properties as Penn is known as 'leafy' Penn, and obviously the esteem and character of Graiseley and Blakenhall is not even remotely in the same bracket. I see no reason for a change
