I am a parishioner of St. Michael's Catholic church in Coalway Road and feel that to move the boundary which would mean our church is no longer in Penn which is the larger part of our geographical boundary would be a detrimental step. I would therefore ask that the Coalway road boundary stays as it is now I can see no logical reason for this proposed change to move the boundary from the centre of the road to one side has very little merit for ward population purposes, also many people will have purchased properties on Coalway road because they wished to live in that ward, so it is grossly unfair to make this change for no real purpose To conclude I object most strongly to these proposals
