Comment text:

I believe Coalway Road should be classed as Penn. The type of housing and and affluence of the area does not lend itself to be regarded as Graisleigh. It will devalue the homes, and if it is classed as Graisleigh, home owners on Coalway Road should and will expect a major deduction in their council tax. This would be a loss to the already stretched council budget. I urge the council to drive down the respected draft boundaries and and look for yourselves as to the suitability to which ward.
