I believe it is very important to have clear and sensible boundaries for the Wards. The line of Coalway Road is exactly that. This proposed change can only cause confusion as many neighbouring houses would find themselves in different wards to their next door neighbours. This ill advised proposal not only does not make sense, but will undoubtedly lead to a loss of clear identity to any people. I cannot believe that this has been properly thought through. I strongly recommend that the existing boundaries for Graiseley and Penn are maintained.
