Subject: Change in electoral wards

Categories: [REDACTED]

I am writing with regard to the parish of Lenham potentially being assigned to two electoral wards. The Lenham parish has included Lenham Heath, Sandway, Platts Heath and Liverton since records began. We have a strong identity as a parish, which would be violated by this division.

There is no historic connection to Headcorn and there are surely better ways of getting electoral numbers to balance than to divide a village and its all suburbs in half.
