Comment text:

I have always found it frustrating that when I lived on Haddon Street, and now where I live on Gladstone Street, that our ward is Abbey and not Normanton. There seems to be this little sliver of streets across from Burton Road which are in Abbey Ward which do not relate to the rest of Abbey Ward at all. I remember wanting to ask my councilor about resurfacing pavements I used daily, but they were in Normanton Ward, not Abbey Ward, and pavements got resurfaced which didn't need doing, while the bad ones were left - assumedely because they were in a different ward! We need to be in wards that we RELATE to, not wards that are convenient for drawing boundaries. How about drawing the lines around the neighbourhood boundaries. That would be a MUCH better idea!
