Really don't want our council wards to change, locally we are an Urmston area with little to do with Stretford, we are on mount drive which is a 5-10 min walk to Urmston Centre or a half hour trek to Stretford- we'd be paying for non local services and disenfranchised from electing a councillor who actually represents the services we would rely on in our local area. Considering how prone to change this wards electoral outcomes are moving the boundaries seems unwise from a democratic stance. Although the motorway seems an easy line a better border is to maintain the barkway road for a clean cut off rather than the awkward shape this redraw has caused. It doesn't actually make sense!
