Having lived in warburton for the past 35 years and been adequately represented by the bowdon ward I see no reason to change,we have our natural boundaries Sinderland brook on one side, the river bollin on the other,warburton is one two rural parishes left in Traff0rd if this boundary change was to take place we as such a small community would totally lose our identity, we have absolutely nothing in common with Partington/carrington and would not be fairly represented regards
