Hello,

My name is [REDACTED]. I do live in Partington, my best 9 years now. I understand its not that much, but when i come from small country, Lithuanian, I really do find my self here, small community where everyone knows each other.

I have noticed thats our community ward is due to change from Sale West and become something similar with Altrincham and Dunham. Please don't do that, and please consider this option. Its very important to be were we are now, we don't have voice in farming, we are standing with complete different attitude in local people we are just different from theres communities. Our standards it's different, our image in the world is different. Im saying that not because someone just told me that, work in Altrincham i drive every single day there, i meet people from Altrincham, from Bowden, from Dunham, they are good people they care about each other like everyone does these days, but people in Partington, Carrington and Sale are like to build there community bit different and its good be different! Its nice to do your way.

Please please hear me! I understand my voice is possible nothing but before you make decisions please first meet our people, meet Altrincham and Dunham people. Just think about your area wherever you live in and if you care about you area, how would you feel if your community would be split in hundreds and hundreds peaces.

Thank you for reading and much more if you heard it
