Dear sir/madam

I am writing to you in relation the the proposed boundary changes for derby city council.

Whilst the council as a whole have submitted proposals to tweak the boundaries the local Labour Party are trying to meddle in the process by gerrymandering the proposals in order to try to strengthen there possible position within the area.

Labour have over the past few years lost control in derby due to scandals involving councillors and lost promises to the electorate.

This party must not be aloud to gerrymander the situation to try to gain an unfair advantage above the other parties within the city.

Yours
