Why is Hollingwood moving to Brimington? Hollingwood has been apart of Staveley for as long as I have known and by the sounds of things no one from Hollingwood want to leave. Staveley are an active council with Councillors who care and when I hear people from Brimington talk they have no idea who their councillors are and barely hear from them. Hollingwood has absolutely nothing in common with Brimington and it's mental that it's proposed to change to Brim.
