I am a resident of Hollingdean and not happy with the proposed changes. It seems a real pity that we are subsumed into Fiveways and that the name of Hollingdean is lost completely. I have lived in both Fiveways and Hollingdean and feel that they both have their own, distinct, characters. Hollingdean has a strong community identity focused on its Community Centre and the recently refurbished St Richards Church. I myself am involved with the Hollingdean News and The Real Junk Food Project cafe at Hollingdean. I suggest that the new ward be named Hollingdean and Fiveways which is consistent with the naming of other wards (Hanover and Elm Grove, Westdene and Hove Park etc). Thank you for considering my views.
