Comment text:

I am extremely concerned with the proposal to blur the boundaries between Brighton and Hove I live in Brunswick ward and it has a very unique identity and history . The boarder of Brunswick Square and Palmeria Square give it a real sense of space and belonging I moved here 15 years ago and feel I have a local community in Hove and it is not Brighton I see myself as living in Hove and use Hove shops and train station and Hove beach I have my Hove and Portslade MP and feel my vote has meaning, as it represents my community , in a General Election It is very very densely populated and have a community feel We have ward councillors who really know the area and work on community issues and keep our identity different to Brighton and the city center issues This is very important to me and I do not want to see the boundary changes proposed happening
