I am a life-long resident of what is now "Auriol" and I am completely against the proposed changes to the Auriol boundary. Auriol and Stoneleigh together make up the area which was originally named "Stoneleigh" and together they have a unique identity which should not be spoilt by extending or attenuating it. The area of Cuddington Community School, the old school field, the allotments and Auriol Park together are a wild-life corridor, which should not be split up. The changes, which appear quite unnecessary, would damage our identity and, I suspect, our ecology. The proposed change in Cuddington Avenue is absurd. Counter proposal: Change the name of "Auriol" back to "Stoneleigh" and let's have the large Stoneleigh which was originally envisioned.
