Your views		Proposals go nowhere near far enough. Count and borough boundaries need to be reviewed before making small changes to ward boundaries. The Stoneleigh, aureole and chessington/ ewellparts of the borough should be merged into the London boroughs of Kingston and Sutton where there are greater synergies. Also what has not been addressed is whether Surrey should become a unitary authority. Until these bigger issues are decided tweaking around the edges is just so much time wasting, money wasting nonsense. This proposal and consultation should therefore be shelved.
