

Brighton and Hove City Council

Personal Details:

Name: [redacted]
[redacted] [redacted]
[redacted] [redacted]

Organisation Name:

Comment text:

Mackie Estate is an important historical part in f patcham and should not will be moved into hollingbury and disappeared. Patcham as an area will be lost and we will lose our own council representation. As a historically important centre of court and trade, and as a conservation area still, patcham should not lose its own council representation as a unique area of protection and importance.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded