I support proposal 1 for the following reasons: Patcham should never be split between two wards and will ruin and divide a well-established & historic community. It is well established & well known that Carden Ave is the boundary between Patcham & Hollingbury. Patcham & Hollingbury is one community. It should never be split up and will cause anger and ill feeling from the residents. The Labour Councillors have failed the community and do not work for them at all. So no to proposal 2. Residents have strong feelings over this. Don't allow anger and frustration to come out over something that is totally ridiculous in the first place.
