the natural boundary for Hollingbury and Carden is Carden Avenue. We live in Craignair Avenue which is part of Patcham and really enjoy the great Patcham community spirit. I am not sure why the boundaries are being reviewed and changed. I do not feel it's the right proposal for the commission to make as the Mackie Estate is physically cut off from Hollingbury and has always been part of Patcham and its community. As residents of Patcham it makes more sense to have a say on what happens in the community. The Mackie Estate was built in Patcham many years ago and should remain in Patcham. Combine all of Westdene and Patcham and not split Patcham in half. Carden Avenue should remain as boundary and leave the current boundaries alone!
