This is absolute madness! How can just one side of one road in the village be Patcham and the rest become Hollingbury. With no disrespect to Hollingbury, these are 2 separate estates with different issues. As a Patcham resident I am concerned about what happens on our doorstep, mainly at the moment The Royal Mail fiasco, are Hollingbury residents and indeed any Hollingbury councillors bothered or indeed support our actions as they would be deemed another part of their constituents. You state it is for voting purposes only, sorry I do not believe anyone on the council anymore.
