I support the proposal for 2 member wards of Patcham & Westdene and Hollingbury& Carden/Ladies Mile and oppose the previous proposal for Westdene & Hove Park which joins part of Hove with Brighton. I have lived in Mackie Avenue for the last 12 years and have always had more affinity with the Carden area where I can walk to Asda (via Ladies Mile Road) and other shops (including post office), walk to the doctors' in Carden Hill and walk to St Thomas More's Church. I have no real call to visit the Patcham village area and it has never had much relevance to me.
