I am writing to object to the barbaric proposal 2 which will see Patcham divided. I support proposal 1 which sees Patcham and Hollingbury stay together in a single ward. Patcham & Hollingbury is one community and always has been sharing the same services, community groups, schools and shops and should be represented together as a single ward. Everyone knows Ladies Mile Road is the main road in Patcham. It is not an estate. We are one. How will this effect school admissions because if you're under the new Hollingbury and Carden; you should be going to Carden School, not Patcham? Will Patcham Junior and High school be renamed if they are not in Patcham? Whoever's idea proposal 2 is clearly has no knowledge of the history of Patcham.
