Firstly no proper consultation with residents, only by media and the active community we have in Patcham, that I even knew about this! What about people that do not have media access? In my opinion This proposal means that Patcham is being swallowed up into Hollingbury (the Mackie estate part) and Patcham Village will become part of Westdene. Patcham is basically being carved in to two. Would it not be more sensible to reduce our representation and have two councillors instead of three if the population is a concern. However current proposals effectively mean our representation would be reduced to zero. Councillors for the new wards would either principally be concerned with Westdene (because that is where most of their electors would live), or principally concerned with Hollingbury (for the same reason), both of which are areas with identities, interests, and issues separate from those of the Patcham community. We are Patcham , you cannot erase our history and deserve to remain as such, would be interested to know who dreams these cockeyed ideas up and expects us to just go along with it and the budget that has undoubtedly been spent!!
