Comment text:

It is ridiculous that Wynyard is split between two councils Stockton and Hartlepool. It is a growing community that cannot function as one if there is a council divide. The two councils need to have serious discussions about one relinquishing responsibility/buying out. In addition, Wynyard is constantly referred to as belonging to Billingham. It is becoming increasingly obvious that these are indeed two separate places both in terms of geography, social economics and general characteristics. Wynyard needs to be separated.
