Comment text:

I want to say that the proposal for dealing with Bishop's Itchington in the proposals is a travesty against local democracy. The proposed two Councillor ward runs contrary to what has been the policy now for some time...one ward, one Councillor. The number of electors per councillor in the new ward is the highest of any existing or proposed ward in the District. The Commission should look again at some of the wards around Stratford town! To aggregate Bishop's Itchington with Napton, Fenny Compton, Shotteswell and Avon Dassett makes no local or cultural sense. It looks as if the commission has ended up with a 'dust bin' ward, just to complete an exercise that is, looking from a district wide perspective, at best anti democratic. I sincerely hope these proposals will be cast into oblivion, where they belong.
