I think Shildon & Dene Valley should be smaller wards, or shared by at least half. The number of new homes and that Shildon is a town, I think, constitutes for there to be a specific ward for parts of Shildon. - Similar to Bishop Auckland Town, and Woodhouse Close. (Both considered Bishop Auckland but are split into two wards. I am confused as to why Binchester is part of the Coundon ward as its not considered by locals as part of Coundon. Primrose Hill and Newfield are also certainly not considered parts of Coundon ward. Councillors would have to travel through at least another ward to reach other parts of their respective ward.
