The proposal to leave half of Girton Road in Cannock South ward and move half to Hawkes Green ward seems ludicrous. I live in the half of the road which is proposed to move to Hawkes Green. I do not live in Hawkes Green. I'm literally opposite Cannock railway station and a five minute walk from Cannock town centre. How can this not be considered Cannock? Where would I need to cast my vote in elections if this were to go ahead? In Hawkes Green or Heath Hayes? Currently my polling station is two streets away. I feel this proposal should be reconsidered and hope for an outcome grounded in common sense.
