Your latest current proposal makes perfect sense and whilst not perfect in every way it is very reasonable, mostly for the reasons you have stated in support of your own proposal.

Broadly following the Austenwood Common and Kingsway line and going up to Maltmans Lane, is all mostly within easy walking distance of Gerrards Cross Town Centre. Most people I know in this area would consider themselves in Gerrards Cross anyway.

The Junction of Packhorse Road, Kingsway and Austenwood Common is where just about everyone thinks Gerrards Cross Town starts anyway. After all there is a sign there on the green saying Gerrards Cross.

There are Schools and the Gerrards Cross Tennis Club that previously would have been in Chalfont St Peter, yet they refer to themselves as been in Gerrards Cross as part of their address, so yet again this makes perfect sense for them to be in Gerrards Cross.
