Having been a Fulmer resident for 37 years I am shocked at the possibility of Fulmer being associated with Wexham/Stoke Poges & Farnham Common rather than Gerrards Cross. As a family we have always used Gerrards Cross for shopping, travelling to London on Chiltern Line, visiting the library, using the restaurants and cafes very frequently, the post office. The association also extends to the shared churches of St James' of which we are supporters. It is a very important relationship and needs to continue
